

The term Salafiyyah comes from the phrase as-salaf as-saliheen or “pious predecessors” of early the Muslim community, referring primarily to Muhammad’s companions (sahaba)