

Domestic Violent Jihad

- Major Nidal Hasan was a card carrying “soldier of Allah” jihadist who shouted “Allahu akbar”, which means “my God is greater than yours”, as he shot 43 people at Fort Hood in 2009, killing 13. Earlier in the day he was giving Korans away. Descriptions are so vague today that Obama administration officials describe that incident in an 86 page report as only “workplace violence” with no mention of Islam, or Hasan being Muslim - even though 2 years earlier he presented a slide show to his supervisors and others at Walter Reed Hospital called The Koranic World View As It Relates To Muslims in the U.S. Military, explaining something he called “jihad” while a senior year psych resident. And even though his mentor was the notorious American imam Anwar Awlaki, who wrote a book review that is included with this online edition of Sayyid Qutb’s 15 volume In The Shade Of The Qur’an, and was eventually killed in 2011 by a U.S. drone missile in Yemen. This delusional see, hear, and speak no evil about Islam is the kind of blind political correctness that everyone had who saw Hasan’s presentation and didn’t see enough red flags to try to stop him - instead he was promoted to Major and sent to Fort Hood. After you finish going thru this site, if you come back and look at his slide show you will appreciate how informed he was about Islamic theology.

- Covering Islam in America is a free course from “a school dedicated to teaching and inspiring journalists and media leaders... Since the Sept. 11, 2001 attacks, a group of right-wing activists who view themselves as 'anti-Jihadists' have aggressively tried to tie American Muslims to terrorism overseas and in the United States”.
