Ahmadiyya, who claim to be Muslim

- People often claim Robert Spencer says radical Islam is the true and only Islam, but he has never said that. He clarifies:

“I have demonstrated ... that jihad warfare against infidels is taught by all the Islamic schools. But I would never say that that means it is the "true and only Islam." The Ahmadiyya, as I have often pointed out, reject violent jihad -- and for that they are persecuted as heretics by other Muslim groups. But are they not true Muslims? I would never say that. I would only say, and it is obvious, that many other Muslim groups do not regard them as orthodox Muslims.”
